

I am supportive of the Indiana no call list, if the banks involved wish to contact me and I am a customer of theirs they know how to contact me. If they wish for me to be a new customer they can receive my consideration by advertising through the media and not by invading my private times.